

Bohr's Bunch January 2018 News

Learning in January:

Happy New Year! We are so glad that all of our kiddos had a great winter break and are ready to jump back into learning! This month's theme is Where We Live. We will be talking a lot about our homes, and how each one is different. We will also talk about our families and the different places we come from. We will do a lot of fun activities relating to farms and cities, and we even plan on baking cookies for our Firefighters this month. Please make sure your child has family photos in the classroom!

These can include pets! 😊 We will be sharing our pictures with one another multiple times this month.

STRONGER THAN YOU SEEM,

YOU THINK.
